

Appendix B:

SIGNIFICANT HISTORICAL PROPERTIES

This document lists sites in Maplewood that may have historic significance. These are sites that could be evaluated to determine whether they meet criteria for designation as a Maplewood Heritage Landmark or for nomination to the National Register of Historic Places. Designation is not pursued without the owners permission.

List of Potentially Significant Historic Structures and Sites

Current sites on National Register of Historic Places

- » Ramsey County Poor Farm Barn

Current Maplewood Heritage Landmarks

- » Bruentrup Heritage Farm
- » Gladstone Savanna

City of Maplewood Historic Context Study suggested the following as potential sites for National Register listing

- » Forest Lawn Cemetery Mausoleum, 1800 Edgerton
- » Seaholm P.Gottfried House, 1800 East Shore Drive (Moderne design)
- » KSTP, 2792 Highway 61 (Art Deco/Moderne)
- » Former Edgerton School (residence at 1745 Edgerton)
- » Former Carver Lake School (residence at 2684 Highwood)
- » JWS Frost House, 1889 Clarence
- » Former St. Paul's Monastery (now Tubman Center), 2675 Larpenteur

Potentially significant sites in public ownership or utility

- » Aldrich Arena
- » Fish Creek site
- » Keller Golf Course (site, not structures)
- » Ramsey County Poor Farm Cemetery
- » Ramsey County Corrections
- » Soo Line Bridge (by Keller Creek, 1936 by WPA)
- » Northern Pacific Bridge #7 (over County Road D)
- » Cow Access Tunnel under prosperity Avenue
- » Gladstone Community Center (on Frost, 1950's)
- » St. Paul Water Works (1869 and later expansions)

Potentially Significant Churches and Cemeteries

- » First Evangelical Free Church (Hazelwood near County C, was Hazelwood School))
- » St. Jerome's (Roselawn and Mcmenemy)
- » Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Kennard & Larpenteur, 1966, Garden of Mary remnants from 1948)
- » Cross Lutheran Church (Frost & Prosperity, 1958)
- » Union Cemetery (on Minnehaha, 1889)
- » Forest Lawn Cemetery and Mausoleum
- » Mt. Zion Cemetery (Payne & Larpenteur, 1889)
- » Islamic Center (former branch library)

Potentially significant sites in private ownership or non-profit

- » St. Paul's Monastery (now Tubman Center)
- » St. Paul Ski Club Ski Jump
- » Moose Lodge (Frost and English)
- » Former Town Hall (now at 1375 Frost Avenue)
- » Former Maplewood Municipal Building (now Philippine Center, 1380 Frost, 1965)
- » Former Parkside Fire station (1958)
- » Former East County Line Fire Station (on Century, 1947)
- » 3M Company
- » Maplewood Mall (1974)
- » Saints North Roller Skating Rink (on Gervais Court, 1973)
- » Schoeder's Dairy
- » Carver General Repair Garage
- » Pink Castle or Chicken Shack (2720 Maplewood Drive)
- » The Plaza Theater (Larpenteur & White Bear Avenue)
- » Hillside School (private childcare, 1709 McKnight, 1940's)
- » Soo Line Section House (now private residence at 1467 Frost near Barclay)
- » Former Carver Lake Tavern (now private residence)
- » Carver Lake School (private home at 2684 Highwood Avenue, 1894)
- » Mike's LP Gas (Clarence & Frost)
- » Origination (on Lakewood)
- » Century Homes – In 2016 there were 136 Century Homes, some of these are potentially significant