“OWNER” ELECTRICAL PERMIT DISCLAIMER

I understand that it is illegal for anyone other than the homeowner who has signed the electrical permit for or a licensed electrical contractor to do electrical wiring in Minnesota. “Anyone” includes family members and/or electricians that are not licensed contractors.

The term “homeowner” refers to the person whom the property is deeded to and that this person is living at the address of the permit on file. This does not include duplexes, condominiums, or any other multi-family or rental occupancy, commercial or industrial properties.

The homeowner doing the work shall prove to the inspector’s satisfaction, that he or she is capable of performing the work to be done.
